Message from Mr Elcock

Dear Parents and Carers,

Next week is Anti-bullying Week, so children will be taking part in various related activities. On Monday children and staff are encouraged to wear odd socks to show how we are all different and unique, and that we should respect each other's individuality.

The theme of this year's Anti-bullying Week is 'Break the Silence'. The Anti-Bullying Alliance says: 'When people come together, speak openly, and choose kindness, bullying loses its power. Every conversation, every act of support, and every voice raised against bullying makes a difference.'

We look forward to seeing who will wear the oddest socks on Monday!

I hope you all have a relaxing weekend, from Mr Elcock

- We held a special assembly for Remembrance Day, including a minute's silence.
